COACHES SELECTED FOR 2023 TOUCHSTONE ENERGY COOPERATIVE BOWL

The Touchstone Energy Cooperatives Bowl, in conjunction with the South Carolina Athletics Coaches Association, has named the respective coaching staffs for the 2023 event. Greer's Will Young will serve as the head coach of the North squad, while Richland Northeast's Walt Wilson has been selected to lead the South team.

This year's game will be played on Saturday, December 9 at Doug Shaw Memorial Stadium in Myrtle Beach.

Wilson, who has been the head coach at Richland Northeast since 2021, previously served as the head coach at C.A. Johnson. Altogether, he has 31 years of coaching experience across the high school and college ranks.

Young was named the head coach at Greer in 2005 after spending two seasons as an assistant with the Yellow Jackets. He also also been a head coach at Travelers Rest and an assistant at both Clemson and Jacksonville State.

Young's North staff will include the following coaches: Chris Arnoult (Mid-Carolina); Willie Fox (Wagener-Salley); Jeff Fruster (Daniel); Justin Garner (Palmetto); Reggie Shaw (Byrnes); and Bruce Dangler (Spring Valley).

Wilson's South will include the following coaches: Ronnie Baker (Lake City); Corey Crosby (Bamberg-Ehrhardt); Scott Durham (Andrews); Jody Haltiwanger (Chapin); Dennie McDaniel (Stratford); and Tim Wash (Cane Bay).

Both staffs will meet periodically between now and October on game strategy, player evaluation and ultimately the selections of each roster.

If you have questions about this year's selections or need assistance lining up interviews with coaches, you can reach Touchstone Energy Cooperatives Bowl Media Director Ian Guerin at 843.267.2177 or ian@ianguerin.com.

South Carolina's electric cooperatives have been the primary sponsors of the Touchstone Energy Cooperatives Bowl since 2013. Previously known as the North-South All-Star Football Game, the event began in 1948. It is one of the oldest high school all-star games in the country.
